Semenoff Denounced as Murderer by Graves

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, April 12.—The cold-blooded killing of American soldiers and of helpless Russian prisoners by the anti-Bolshevik forces in Siberia was described before the senate education and labor committee today by General W. S. Graves, U. S. A., who commanded the American military contingent formerly stationed in that country.

Gregorie Semenoff, former anti-Bolshevik general, now under arrest at New York city, was denounced by General Graves as a man who possessed the reputation in Siberia of being a "brutal and unconscionable murderer and robber."

General Graves was the first witness called by Senator Bohan, Republican of Idaho, the committee chairman, when the investigation of Semenoff's activities in Siberia, and of his presence in this country, was begun.

General Graves related how on one occasion an American officer and four American soldiers were captured by Semenoff's anti-Bolshevik soldiers and shot.

He testified that at 1 o'clock on one morning Semenoff's men had fired into a box car in which American soldiers were sleeping and had killed two and wounded several of them.

Semenoff was represented at the hearing by John Kirkland Clark, member of a New York law firm, who provoked smiles in a crowded committee room by stating that his client was "unable to be present because of the reception he had been accorded at New York city."

Clark, in questioning General Graves, sought to show that the latter's testimony was based on "hearsay evidence" and that the general was relying upon the reports of his subordinates and of Bolsheviks for the grave charges he made against Semenoff.

General Graves produced an affidavit he said had been made at Chita, September 1, 1919, by Lieut. John J. McDonald, an American formerly connected with the Siberian Railroad, in which the cold-blooded slaughter of Bolshevik prisoners by Semenoff's soldiery was described in revolting detail.

"I had long heard of these big killings that Semenoff was having at different points along the line of railroad, but it didn't seem possible that such things could happen even in Siberia," General Graves quoted McDonald as stating.

In his affidavit, McDonald told of a "murder train" from which Russian men and women were dragged by Semenoff's soldiers and brutally massacred.

"The ground was littered with torn clothing and all kinds of papers," McDonald continued. "The graves of the victims we saw only had thin layers of earth on top and dogs and other animals had dragged some of the bodies out."

"That same night," the affidavit concluded, "Semenoff went through on his way east. There were numbers of Japanese on the train and some women. They stopped at Adirondack and had a big celebration—a banquet. They had music and plenty of booze. Then Semenoff went further east to Vladivostok."

ROANOKE BIBLE CLASS MOURNS DR. LEEPER

During the time he was in Roanoke, Va., preceding his illness and death, the Rev. Dr. Leeper, former pastor of the First Dutch Reformed Church of this city, became deeply interested in the Men's Bible Class of the Second Presbyterian Church of that city. On Sunday, the class adopted resolutions of appreciation of the great interest he had taken in the organization and welfare of the class, and expressing the loss which the class members felt of one so eminently fitted by years of study and travel to inform them of the teachings of the book which was his guide. The Bible class expressed its deep sympathy to the members of Dr. Leeper's family and in grateful remembrance of his work pledged themselves to greater efforts.

BYRNE'S SPEECH PLEASED ALL

Rotary Bag of Tricks Not Exhausted—Club Members to Visit Newburgh April 25 and Hear Mollenauer April 26.

The fellow who wrote "Songs Without Words" hasn't anything on James Byrne of the Kingston Rotary Club who entertained his fellow Rotarians at noon today with a speech without words that pleased everybody and that everybody could not help agree with in every particular. Mr. Byrne, who was on the program for a speech, resorted to the novel expedient of furnishing each man present with a lead pencil so that everyone could write out exactly the kind of a speech he preferred. The time thus saved was by unanimous consent donated to William Dugan, who was so embarrassed by the unexpected opportunity that for the first time in a long and vocally busy career he was rendered speechless. President Watts, who is never afflicted in this way, bridged the gap with various and fervent exhortations and announcement was made that at the evening meeting on April 26 "Free Speech" would be the topic and the Rev. J. Valdemar Mollenauer of Albany would be the speaker. An invitation to attend evening meeting in Newburgh on April 25 was accepted on the spot by 10 men and any others intending to go are requested to notify David Burgevin, guardian pro tem, for the pilgrims who make the trip.

RISING RIVER ALARMS ALBANY

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Albany, April 12.—With the waters of the Hudson river rising rapidly this afternoon, the lower part of Albany was in danger of being inundated. At noon the water was three feet above the docks along the river front, and the cellars of many stores and houses along lower Broadway were partly flooded.

The freshet is caused by a miniature cloudburst along the upper reaches of the Hudson last night. River men said they would not be surprised to see the water six feet above the docks by tonight. Many towns and villages along the upper Hudson are in danger of being flooded.

EXAMINE DAVISES AS TO MENTALITY

State Hospital Expert Finds Hurley Adult and Child Defective—Commitment Proceedings Halted Until April 22.

Application for the commitment of May Davis and Elizabeth Davis, alleged mental defectives, to a state institution, came before Judge Joseph M. Fowler at county court chambers this morning.

The application is made by Miss Martha Davis, county agent of the State Charities Aid Association for dependent children, after a number of residents of the town of Hurley had signed a petition asking her to take such action.

The Davises live in the vicinity of Eagle's nest, on Old Hurley Mountain and are children of Belle Davis, who lives with her step brother, John Henry Davis. They are negroes. May is 24 years old and Elizabeth is 9 years old. According to tests by which mental ages of individuals are determined, both May and Elizabeth are said to show a mental age of four or five years.

The examination of the Davises was made at the mental clinic held in this city on St. Patrick's Day by one of the examiners connected with the Middletown State Hospital and took place in the presence of Dr. Mary Gage-Day and Dr. Henry Van Hovenberg.

As it was desired to have the Middletown Hospital examiner present as a witness before Judge Fowler and also have the attendance of other members of the Davis family, the proceeding was adjourned to April 22. District Attorney Traver appeared for the petitioner; Francis C. Merritt appeared for the father of the two girls.

GRADE CROSSING HEARING HELD

Summitville Residents Oppose Change in Road Route Which Would Invert Traffic—Good Road to Port Jervis by 1925.

A public hearing was held today at the court house before the chairman of the public service commission in regard to a proposed change in location of the state highway now under contract between Wurtsboro and Ellenville. The proposed plans are to change the location of highway and divert through traffic from two grade crossings, one at Summitville and the second at Phillipsport. Under the proposed change the roadway would run under the main line of the O. & W. Railroad and along the old low path of the D. & H. Canal, thus avoiding the two grade crossings now existing on the Kingston-Monticello branch of the O. & W. Railroad.

In order to relocate the highway it would make it necessary to reconstruct the present undercrossing of the roadway under the D. & H. Canal at Summitville. The present route crosses the tracks and then recrosses again, the proposed change would keep the state highway on one side of the tracks and divert all through traffic from the grade crossings.

The contract has been let for the highway which is being built as a state highway with federal aid. It is estimated that the work will be completed and a through state highway from Kingston to Port Jervis will be built by 1925.

There is considerable opposition to the proposed change as the new location would avoid the central part of Summitville and hit only the outskirts.

CHRYSTENAH, GIVEN UP AS LOSS, TO BE REUSED AGAIN

The old Hudson river steamboat Chrystenah, which for years plied between New York and Peekskill, and was wrecked by a storm and blown into the head of Echo Creek at New Rochelle early last year, was floated at high tide and towed to Oyster Bay Tuesday.

The Chrystenah became an excursion boat on Long Island Sound two years ago. In the storm last year she was wedged between the stone walls of the creek and the insurance companies paid a total loss to her owners. The city of New Rochelle acquired title and sold her at public auction for $1 to Frederick Wenck, who rebuilt her as a ferryboat and will probably use her again on the Hudson. Chaucey M. Dewey and the late James W. Husted used to travel on the old Chrystenah. The Chrystenah is well-known by people in the downtown part of this city, having carried many excursion parties in the days of the Rondout creek in years gone by.

DAUGHERTY'S VISIT FRUITLESS

No New Hope of Ending Coal Strike—Already Working on Cases Cited By Woodruff, He Says.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Indianapolis, Ind., April 12.—Investigation into alleged war-time contracts frauds already has been instituted by the department of justice, according to General Daugherty. The attorney general made the statement when informed that Representative Woodruff of Michigan, had threatened impeachment proceedings against him unless such action was taken.

The International News Service Washington dispatch, reciting the action of the Michigan congressman, showed the attorney general late yesterday as he was hastening from his hotel to a taxi preparatory to leaving the city after a two-day investigation into the coal strike situation.

"I have not the time to read thoroughly," said the attorney general, "nor to go into the matter in detail. This Lincoln Motor Company matter (one of those referred to by Representative Woodruff) already is under investigation and if it is found there is reason for governmental action, that action certainly will be taken."

The attorney general's departure ended hope that an end might be brought to the coal strike through administrative action, at least for the time being.

CHITA NEAR WAR WITH JAPANESE

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, April 12.—Formal declaration of war against Japan by the Far Eastern republics—a war in which Soviet Russia will inevitably be drawn in—will be promulgated on the day that the Japanese army now engaged in driving back the troops of the Chita republic, penetrate the Amur district of Siberia beyond the village of Iman, envoys of the Far Eastern republic today informed the International News Service.

The Japanese army is now 40 miles from Iman. The Siberian army is retreating before the Japanese hosts "without firing a shot," according to cable advices received today by the Chita representatives here, who declare that press reports emanating from Tokio "are inspired by the Tokio foreign office and are to be taken with a grain of salt."

"Misinformation calculated to poison world public opinion is being spread by the Japanese government," the Chita officials declared. "These war office statements" they continued, "are being issued to the press declaring that the Chita soldiers have fired upon the Japanese and that the present skirmishes are necessary because Japan's hand has been forced. This is untrue."

"WETS" GAIN IN ELECTION IN 37TH

Republican Lewis Henry Wins But By Greatly Reduced Majority—Irving Carries Every City—Farmer Vote Dead Him.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Rochester, N. Y., April 12.—That the result of the election in the 37th congressional district yesterday, which was fought out on purely wet and dry lines was a victory for the "wets" was the general opinion expressed through the southern tier and western New York today. Lewis Henry, Republican of Elmira, won the congressional seat over Judge Frank Irving, Democrat of Ithaca, by a plurality of 3,937. The total vote he polled was 8,941 votes less than was cast for the Republican candidate for congress, Alanson R. Houghton, in the election of 1920.

Every one of the five counties in the 37th congressional district returned a reduced vote for the "dry" candidate, Chemung county, one of the largest of the five and the candidate's own county, going for the "wet" candidate by 463 votes while Judge Irving carried Elmira, the Republican candidate's home city, by 1,759. In fact, the "wet" candidate carried every city in the district, Cortland by 625; Hornell by 359 and Ithaca by 248.

The former vote is what defeated Judge Irving, in the opinion of political analysts. The farmers, referred to as "the hard elder gang," voted against Irving it is argued, in respect to the wet and dry issue in which they show no concern because they admit "they've got theirs and always will have it." The city voters, who "haven't" got theirs, voted for the wet candidate and, while they didn't elect him, they humbled the opposition's lead down sufficiently to "let them sleep."

The result of the election was regarded here today as indicating the trend of public opinion in the cities on the prohibition question which it is predicted will "cut a considerable figure" in the coming congressional elections next fall.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Genoa, April 12.—Despite their belligerent and pugnacious attitude, that has already done defiance in the face of three nations—France, Roumania and Japan—the Russian delegates in the international economic conference have no intention of bolting. On the contrary it was made evident today that they are determined to hold on tenaciously to their seats at the green table with the other powers.

The Russians are anxious to get everything possible out of the conference. They are getting on as many committees as possible and are taking an active part in the discussion of every issue that arises.

It is believed that the Russians would be pleased to antagonize the French to such a degree that the latter would retire from the conference. This would not only give Moscow sweet revenge for repeated French tirades into Bolshevik efforts at rapprochement, but also would isolate France as the one power that is blocking disarmament.

While the German delegation continues to adhere to its keynote of "do not rock the boat," the slogan of the Russians seems to be "Rock it all you can." The past 48 hours have proved that the Russians are going to play a dominant role. The performance of the Russian leader, George Tchitcherin, has, in fact, been sensational. It was expected that the Russian would be active but no one expected the spokesman of an unrecognized and virtually outlawed government, to become the most aggressive of the statesmen present.

Tchitcherin believes that the only way to exploit Russia's political and diplomatically strong though industrially weak position, is by forcing a fight from the very start on every issue and keeping it up until the world powers become impressed. In the meantime the Germans are content to sit back watchfully awaiting the outcome of the battle between the Russians and the French.

P. T. A. OF SCHOOL NO. 7 HAS MONTHLY MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Organization of School No. 7 was held on Tuesday afternoon. The mothers were very enthusiastic over the serving of milk for the mid-morning meal. Officers were elected for the coming year, as follows: President, Mrs. Hugh Talbot; vice-president, Mrs. Gerard Hoyt; secretary, Miss Spader; treasurer, Miss DeWitt.

NEW IRISH PEACE PARLEY TOMORROW

Usual Skepticism As To Enduring Results Prevails—De Valera Not So Anxious As Collins and Griffith.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Dublin, April 12.—That the Republicans are doubtful of the success of the truce conference was indicated today by the fact that they continued their warlike preparations. Sand bag barricades were erected in streets where Republican strongholds are located and houses were turned into fortresses.

Michael Collins and Arthur Griffith of the Irish provisional government are anxious for a settlement with the mutinous action of the Irish Republican army, but Eamon de Valera, leader of the Republicans, is inclined to be obstinate, according to the viewpoint outlined by Irish Free State chiefs.

It is a noteworthy fact that reports of violence have decreased since the conference was arranged.

I am hopeful that an agreement will be reached which will end all the difficulties, said the lord mayor of Dublin to the International News Service. It was the lord mayor who sent out the invitations.

The date of the meeting has not yet been announced but it probably will open tomorrow.

Arthur Griffith, president of the Dail Eireann, will be one of the Irish Free State delegates. He said that the preliminary arrangements for the meeting were being completed and that he hoped it would convene tomorrow.

Trusts as Ancient as Pyramids.

Like many other things supposed to be entirely modern, trusts are by no means new features of life. They are, indeed, at least as ancient as the pyramids. It appears that the earliest form of trust was the cornering of foodstuffs by monarchs and their agents. Assyrian records 7,000 or 8,000 years old give accounts of these monopolistic transactions by tyrannical rulers.

"ROUGH SLEDDING" FOR LLOYD-GEORGE

Hated And Jealous Among French, Russians and Germans Tax British Premier To Keep His Geneva Conference Together.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Geneva, April 12.—Despite the fact that reduction of land armaments has been barred by France from discussion in the international economic conference because it was not included in the agenda drawn up by the supreme council at Cannes, Premier Lloyd-George hopes to have it discussed informally before the conference breaks up, it was understood here this afternoon.

It was authoritatively declared that the British premier holds that the conference will be a failure unless land disarmament is taken up ultimately. Lloyd-George is said to have assured the Russians that he will make an effort to have the issue introduced in some way at a later date. In the meantime he is urging the Russian delegates to be patient.

The atmosphere of the conference has become charged with electricity over the friction that has developed. The clash between Russia and France over the attempt of the Russians to have land disarmament discussed at once seems to have been more serious than originally believed. M. Barthou, head of the French delegation was enraged over the manner in which the Russians aggressively suggested that reduction of armaments should be included in the deliberations.

The French hold that the Cannes program must be followed to the letter and that it is no-business of the outside world how big an army she maintains. It is learned that Delegate Barthou received a telegram in code from Premier Poincare of France instructing him to oppose German representation on the political sub-committee because France and Belgium plan to take severe measures against Germany in May because of Germany's rejection of the new indemnity demands of the inter-allied reparations committee. Premier Lloyd-George threatened to break up the conference if the French persisted in their anti-German attitude. Barthou capitulated but attempted to square himself at Paris by opposing German representation on the finance commission.

British Press Rejoices.

London, April 12.—The British press today hailed with joy the news that a peace conference will be held by the representatives of the Irish Free State and the Irish Republicans at Dublin.

ARCOLA means better health

FLORISTS will tell you that the same flowers that thrive in hot-water warmth will wither and droop from the withering heat of stoves or hot-air furnaces. If hot-water warmth is good for flowers, it is good for families too.

ARCOLA, connected with American Radiators, will warm your home all over with healthful hot-water warmth.

Waitress Has Idea on Tip's Status.

Whether the "man in the street" regards the tip he leaves beside his plate after lunch as a free gift in recognition of service rendered or as part of the charge for his lunch, there is no doubt about its status in the mind of one Broadway waitress.

Because he had no loose change in his pocket, one diner walked out of his habitual luncheon haunt the other day without leaving his customary dose. Next day, to square accounts, he put down two dimes as he rose from the table. Whereupon blonde Miss, returning the coins with practiced hand, remarked: "Oh, yes, that's so; you do owe me a dime."—New York Sun.

JET IN HEADDRESS

Pearls Also Used to Add to Decorations for the Hair.

Bracelet Encircles Arm at Wrist and Above Elbow, Connected by String of Beads.

Jet used singly or combined with pearls makes up some of the most striking combs and headdresses, either seen in the shops or worn by smart Parisiennes, observes a fashion writer. A jet comb noticed recently was set with two rows of pearls, the upper row two sizes larger than the lower. The touch of chic, however, lay in the fact that the comb reached almost from ear to ear, giving a wonderful effect against the dark red hair on which it was worn.

A headdress made entirely from jet consists of a narrow band worn low on the forehead and having three circular ornaments overlapping each other at the front. At either side are jet rings, which are as large as bracelets and which give the effect of mammoth earrings. Accompanying this headdress is a pair of jet bracelets, one encircling the arm at the wrist and the other above the elbow, and both connected by a string of jet beads. The prematurely white-haired woman who wore these affected a one-piece dress of white velvet, the slight gathers across the front held in at either side with a jet ornament.

A new bracelet made large enough to wear just below the shoulder is of pearls strung on silver and has a fringe of pearl beads which falls over the arm. This fringe is sometimes of uniform length and at other times has pointed scallops. This fringe idea is carried out in bracelets of pearls combined with onyx, thus making a much more striking and really snarlier bracelet than the pearls alone.

THE STRIKING WHITE SERGE

This winsome costume of white serge is trimmed with black and white braid and black wool fringe. The ever ready cape which reaches almost to the hem of the skirt is popular at Southern resorts. The white hat completes the outfit.

FASHIONS IN BRIEF

The bare necklines and other shallow décolletés are preferred to the extremes just now.

Short capes have stole collars of fur, and are edged with narrow black silk fringe.

An uneven line at the hem may be very attractively developed by a sash tied so that one end hangs well below the skirt hem proper.

The new handbags for spring must be flat and thin and ornamented with onyx, karacats or jewels, whether they be of silks, moires, velvets, faillie or satin.

Clusters of chenille dots on the light veils will take one of the leading ranks among the veillings in the spring. In the cluster effects there will be several contrasting colors.

A novelty apron that has been especially featured at a smart New York shop is made of suede cut in stripes that are studded with steel beads, forming a pattern. This novelty is being shown as the successor to silk fringe, which has been so extensively used as dress trimming.

Hats of Felt.

Hats of felt, bound with a circle ribbon and pressed into ridges or folds around the top of the crown, are particularly smart. They come in all shades of tan and brown and in black and dark blue. There are two ways of trimming them. One is to use ostrich and one is to use a cord, bow or band of ribbon. The ribbon, of course, preserves the tailored effect of the hat. The ostrich makes it into a more elaborate hat for afternoon dress wear.

Out for the Championship.

An actor with a decided thrift strain was told by a Broadway hotel matron that a certain fellow in town was called the champion tightwad because he only tipped her a dime. "Well," said the actor, "I'm going to take the championship away from him."

FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL GIRL

Copper colored duvetyne, white silk embroidery and black fur are combined to make this frock most fetching for the well dressed high school miss. It also boasts a Paris label. The hat is of black velvet with touch of blue.

NOVELTY SILKS FOR SPRING

Silk manufacturers, believing that women will want simple things in novelty silks next spring, have in consequence designed many fabrics that are unusually well suited to children's needs.

In the sport silks for example, the "loud" plaids of sharply contrasted colors and bold designs have yielded to the quiet things suitable for the simple slip-on-frocks, so similar to the style affected by the juniors.

Women are expected to want a great many fabrics in all-white, or white with one gay color which gives brightness without garishness, and this too, helps to make the way of the child's dress designer an easy one. Good taste marks the choice of design and coloring.

One finds here a white crepe de chine with tiny check of bright red woven or printed on the fabric, and there a light jade green canton crepe with large check made by a white cord of artificial silk. Many of the sport silks carry out the quieter gingham ideas in softer effects than are usually found in the cottons. Others use plain or fancy stripes.

The crepe fancies are probably in the majority for sport wear, and are more suitable for the young dress than the artificial silk materials would be.

For summery afternoon frocks there are charming printed crepe de chine, frequently with tiny floral patterns, well spaced on white grounds. The patterns are in delicate pastel colors, and the youthful, dainty style of these silks make them adaptable for young wearers. Paris, sponsoring prints, according to late advice from travelers back from abroad lends force to this trend.

As to plain materials, from present indications here and abroad crepe de chine is to be one of the most important weaves. A number of fine grades of this weave are being made, including one known under the name of encharme and many other titles. It resembles both crepe de chine and radium, having the close, flat appearance of the latter cloth.

CARE IN SELECTING COLORS

Becoming Colors for Everyday Clothes for Mother and Daughters Will Add to Happiness.

Isn't it more important that everyday clothing, both for mother and child, should be pretty and becoming than that the "Sunday clothes" or clothes for special occasions should have all the care? A child that wears a becoming school dress will be much more likely to take care of it and learn better habits and will be a happier child than one who is ashamed of her clothes. A mother who wears neat, pretty everyday dresses will be happier and have a happier family than one who is careless or slovenly or who wears ugly, unbecoming work dresses.

A becoming color costs no more than an ugly one. Care in selecting colors and studying the matter of cutting the neck in becoming lines or adding pretty collars and pockets or a few touches of embroidery to a school dress makes all the difference in the world.

Delicate Scent.

A dash of delicate perfume may be added as the final touch to the toilette. Care must be taken that it is not too strong, for nothing is more disagreeable to the rest of the world.

Shot Making is Unchanged.

Shot making is one of the few industries that have hardly changed in more than 100 years. Molten lead is still poured from the top of a shot tower. Small sizes require a drop of 100 feet, the larger require a longer fall of nearly double that height.

Mlle. Nereux, representing the Ciroaldienne Club, is shown here as she crossed the line and won the cross-country run at St. Cloud, France, for the Dubonnet Cup, one of the annual classics for girls. She is only sixteen years old and competed against a field of fifty girls.

King Albert of Belgium, one of the most outstanding heroes of the World War and who visited the United States, is ill at Versailles, France, from a nervous breakdown.

News of his condition is eagerly sought in Brussels, capital of the little country that withstood the early onslaught of the German invasion at the outset of the war.

Embarrassing.

My married sister invited me to pass a week at her home to meet a dear friend of the family. After being introduced he moved to another chair. I, thinking he meant me to take his chair, pulled it toward me and sat down. At the same time he backed toward where he had left his chair and landed on the floor, to the amusement of everyone but himself. He left early and we have never met since. Of course he thinks I did it on purpose. Exchange.

World Progress.

The Twentieth century has just completed its twenty-first year. It seems scarcely credible that when the century was born such commonplace of today as the airplane, wireless telegraphy, motion pictures, the submarine and the automobile barely existed. Indianapolis News.

Wanted His Reward.

Some time ago a bottle with its paper was dropped in the Indian ocean and picked up in the Red sea off the coast of British Somaliland by a Mohammedan named Mohamed Mustapha, who believed the paper of mystic or intrinsic value. Being unable to read his message in any of the several languages in which it was displayed, he carried his camel and rode miles across the desert to the nearest British agent. After endeavoring to explain the nature of the find, the agent filled out the blank with the finder's name and forwarded to the Navy department in Washington. The native departed still convinced that some great reward was his, and about two months later rushed into the same office, again demanding further elucidation on a newly acquired paper. In his hand he waved a large pilot's chart of his native waters and a letter from the hydrographer thanking him for his service. The chart, he insisted, was a draft on the American government; its size, he believed, indicated a large sum of money, and he demanded indignantly to know why the local bank would not cash it for him.

The Peacock.

The common domestic peacock is a native of India and Ceylon. It was regarded by the ancients as the attribute of Juno, and in Christian art is a symbol of the resurrection. In modern simile it is the type of vain glory. In a wild state the peacock is an extremely shy bird, frequenting mostly the lower elevations and mountain slopes. The peacock does not thrive in extremely cold climates.

LADY'S SLIPPER

"Effie Elf," said Daddy, "had gone walking in the woods, and had met there a lovely Lady's Slipper flower."

"The Lady's Slipper was growing in the ground and was looking very handsome and lovely."

"Hello, Lady's Slipper," said Effie Elf. "May I call you Lady for a pet name?"

"Certainly," said the Lady's Slipper. "Lady shall my name be to you?"

"I have met some of the small yellow flowers which are relatives of yours. They were so sweet and fragrant and it was a great pleasure to see them. But I've long wanted to have a chat with you."

"Tell me, Lady, will you talk with me and tell me a story which I hear you have to tell me, an adventure story I believe it is?"

"Indeed I will tell you my story. I am sure that the Wood Fairy must have told you I had a story. Was that how you heard of it?"

"That was the way," said Effie Elf.

"Sometimes I am known as the Moccasin Flower because I look something like a moccasin."

"Also I am known as the Lady's Slipper because I look like a lady's slipper. Sometimes I am known as the Stainless Lady's Slipper because I haven't the greatest amount of stem to me that one might imagine I might have."

"Though, again, no one might expect much of a stem to me after all. I don't know. I don't think any of the flowers suit me as well as that of Pink Slipper. For I am like a Pink Slipper. Still Moccasin Flower suits me pretty well. And Lady's Slipper is all right, too."

"After all, I think most of my names are nice. I really really do."

"But I wanted to tell you my story, for I may not get another chance."

"SWEETS TO THE SWEET"

The candy which anyone can make in the home kitchen is just as delicious and twice as cheap and fully as wholesome, if not much more so, than that bought at the confectioner's. The following are recipes worth while cherishing and trying occasionally.

College Nuggets.—Take one pound of brown sugar, one cupful of water, boil until it makes a ball in cold water, then pour boiling over the well beaten white of an egg. Continue heating until the mixture is creamy, then add flavoring of vanilla and chopped nuts. Drop on a buttered sheet before it gets too hard.

French Fondant.—Take one pound of sugar, one-half cupful of water, two tablespoonfuls of white corn sirup or an eighth of a teaspoonful of cream of tartar. Boil until a soft ball is made when dropped into cold water. Set away to cool, then stir until creamy. Place in a buttered bowl, cover with a cloth and let stand for a day or two to ripen. This foundation may be used for any number of candies. Flavor with peppermint, melt over hot water and drop on waxed paper, for peppermint patties. Wintergreen patties may be prepared the same way with wintergreen flavoring. Chopped pineapple added to fondant made into balls and dipped in chocolate, also melted over hot water, is delicious.

Cream Candy.—Take one cupful of cream and two cupfuls of sugar. Roll to a soft ball stage, flavor to taste, then beat and pour into a dish, or drop from a spoon.

Mack Cherry Pie.—Mix one and one-half cupfuls of cranberries cut in halves, three-fourths of a cupful of raisins, chopped, one cupful of sugar and one tablespoonful of flour. Place this mixture in a pastry lined pie plate, dot with bits of butter, add two tablespoonfuls of orange juice, cover with an upper crust and bake thirty-five minutes in a hot oven.

Quirinal Originally Church Property.
 The Quirinal is one of the seven hills upon which Rome stands; it was dedicated by the ancient Romans to Romulus, or Quirinus. The Quirinal palace was built in the sixteenth century by the Roman Catholic church, but after the breach between the church and state in 1870 it became the residence of the Italian king. The Quirinal, as it is figuratively used, means the court of united Italy and the monarchical regime.

Highest-Priced Tobacco.
 The highest-priced tobacco grown in the world is produced in a certain area near the western coast of Cuba which is more than twenty-five miles square. The fine aromatic tobacco grows there can be produced nowhere else.—Brooklyn Eagle.

"Hello, Lady's Slipper."

Pink Lady's Slipper, or Pink Lady for short. That sounds very pretty I think.

"All right, Pink Lady," smiled Effie Elf.

"I am eager to hear the story," she said.

"A day or so ago," said Pink Lady, "a bee came along and asked if he might have a little meal."

"I told him he could have all the meals he wanted to have and so he came in, and had a gorgeous meal in our best banquet hall."

"He came in from the sloping side entrance which we have on the way to the banquet hall and he thought it was a beautiful place with much rich food."

"Then, when he had had enough he wanted to come out again. At first he thought he was in a trap, for he buzzed away and couldn't seem to find his way out."

"But after a time he saw the two little hall lights I have beyond my banquet hall. They are really little openings at the other end of my passage-hall which let the light shine through them into the banquet hall."

"He followed these lights and came along the narrow, narrow hall of mine and as he walked along he had to push his way through and the sticky decorations I had along the way, the sticky curtains and so forth, caught the pollen he had on his back and head which he had brought from another Lady's Slipper flower."

"You see we have this way of helping each other along and the Bee does it for us but with a great deal of help from us and suggestions about how he should walk out of our banquet hall."

"Then he goes through another little passage way and gets some of our pollen to take away with him to one of our relatives who gets it from him as he leaves her banquet hall just as I did."

"What an interesting story," said Effie Elf, "and what a fine way you all have of working together, though you are separated from each other."

Exide BATTERIES

Bright Lights on the Farm

Out on the prairie, in New England valleys, on lonely mountain sides, thousands of farm homes, churches, schools, and stores are now electrically lighted by the current from Exide Batteries. A large majority of all small electric light and power plants on farms and on yachts are equipped with Exide—the long-life battery.

You use an Exide Battery daily—every time you telephone it is the current from an Exide that sends your voice over the wire. Submarines are propelled under the sea, as are mine locomotives below the ground and street trucks and electric passenger cars on the ground, by Exide Batteries.

Exide was the pioneer battery in automobiles as well as in the other fields where batteries are used. The result is a starting and lighting battery of long-lasting power—a matter of real comfort and economy to you in motoring.

When you require a new battery, or repairs on any make of battery, we hope for an opportunity to show you the calibre of Exide service.

RENOVATION FOR CITY HALL JAIL

Board of Health Inspection Shows That Much Renovation and Ventilation is Needed to Overcome Stench in Lower Corridor of Building—Listed on Table.

From time to time the lower corridor of the city hall is filled with a stench that comes from the city hall lockup, located on the first floor of the building, opposite police headquarters. The question of overcoming the stench was discussed at the March meeting of the city health board, and Sanitary Inspector W. H. Stork, Plumbing Inspector Edgar Holstein and Chief of Police J. Allan Wood were appointed a committee to make an inspection and report what could be done to eliminate the odor.

The committee submitted a report at the April meeting of the board held Tuesday evening recommending that the lockup be both renovated and ventilated. Owing to the unavoidable absence of Mayor Crane, the report was tabled until the next meeting.

The report was as follows:

On investigation found that there are located on the east side of the lockup four cells with two toilets and a toilet in each, and one large cell with nine cells one toilet and sink, having six windows. On the west side is a public toilet leading to the hall, the only means of ventilation being a window leading to the main hall. The cells are in a very unsanitary condition, not having been cleaned in some time, as well as the plumbing fixtures and walls.

It is therefore recommended that the lockup be renovated and properly ventilated and that public toilet be placed on east side of lockup, where there is a window leading to the open air and have new fixtures installed.

Respectfully submitted

W. H. STORK,
I. ALLAN WOOD,
EDGAR HOLSTEIN

Set New Pace For Motor Car Industry

To a public that has become keenly discriminating, low prices are appealing only when allied to high quality.

This fact explains the interest in Chandler prices. These prove that resources, manufacturing skill and high ideals can build the exclusive, powerful, long lived car at a figure little above those for admittedly cheap cars. This is the most significant automobile development of 1922.

The Chandler Six is the lowest priced car of its style, size and power. There are bigger automobiles of larger bore and stroke, but they cost more in original investment, and their greater weight involves larger maintenance outlay.

The extraordinary success of the Chandler line has not been lost on competing manufacturers. They have been forced to a belated acceptance of the policy of lowest possible prices, adopted by Chandler and other foremost makers at the beginning of 1922.

Whether in the snappy touring types or in the luxurious closed models the Chandler Motor Car Company is now building the closest priced car it ever produced. It will continue to build for quality.

Do your feet give out

PROBABLY there is nothing the matter with your feet, but soon after you put on your shoes, they begin to tire. Why? Nature planned the foot to have three points of contact with the ground—heel, ball and outside arch. But in raising the heel from the ground, the arch is left without a firm support. Your weight bearing down on the unsupported arch strains it.

The Arch Preserver Shoe raises the heel and arch from the ground, thus giving the foot the stylish appearance you desire; but unlike shoes with bending arches, it has a concealed built-in arch-bridge that supports the arch. Though shod in the latest fashion, your feet are free from strain all through the longest, hardest day when you wear Arch Preserver Shoes.

If you are thin and scrawny, add solid, firm flesh by taking Gode's Pepto-Mangan with your meals for a few weeks. It will put you in better health and Nature will restore you to your normal weight. Pepto-Mangan itself does not add weight but it does build up health. You won't be thin and scrawny if you are well. Get it of your druggist. INJUNCTION IN
CIVIC SQUABBLE

Judge Hasbrouck Restrains Troy Officials From Buying Building Site Over Which There Is Dispute.

Judge Hasbrouck has granted a temporary injunction returnable at the Kingston special term of the supreme court on Saturday, May 6, restraining city officials of Troy from proceeding with negotiations for the purchase of properties in State street and Sixth avenue, Troy, as the site for a new central police and fire headquarters. The proceeding was started by D. Frederick Winklemann of North Troy.

The injunction is the outgrowth of a bitter fight which has been waged in Troy against the selection of the proposed site for the new central police and fire headquarters. Last Thursday night the Troy common council adopted an ordinance empowering the commissioner of public works to purchase the site. Before the ordinance was passed by the council, the city planning commission reported it was unable to recommend a site and asked additional time, whereupon the matter was taken from the hands of the commission and disposed of by the aldermen.

The Troy Record has been particularly vehement in its attacks on the proposed site and several weeks ago its editor was summoned before the common council to prove facts, if any, upon which he had based an editorial entitled "The City Hall Mystery" in which he hinted that politics played a big part in the selection of the site. The editor challenged the jurisdiction of the aldermen and refused to be sworn.

Judge Hasbrouck has restrained the commissioner of public works from buying the site, as he was empowered to do by the ordinance, and also has restrained the board of estimate and apportionment from authorizing the purchase of the site.

ASK THAT MRS. WARNER HAVE HUSBAND'S PLACE

Following closely on the death of County Clerk Luther C. Warner of Albany, which occurred last Friday, Edward J. Barker, the deputy county clerk who has been acting clerk since Mr. Warner's death, died suddenly at his home on Monday of acute indigestion with which he was stricken Sunday noon.

The office was run by Mr. Barker during the illness of Mr. Warner throughout the winter and he enjoyed public confidence to a marked degree. He was a member of Albany Lodge of Elks and of the Royal Arcanum. His funeral took place today from St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Albany.

The funeral of County Clerk Warner took place Monday from the Masonic Temple, Albany, and was in charge of the Knights Templar of which he was a member.

It is said that while Mr. Warner was dying, a decision was reached by a number of Albanians to recommend Valentine Komfort as his successor in the event of his death, but a request also is to be made to Governor Miller to appoint Mrs. Ida Warner, widow of the county clerk, as her husband's successor.

CLEAN-UP WEEK STARTS MONDAY

Part of State Wide Drive to Clean Up Cities and Villages—Anti-Sloppy Cops Board's Attention to Lack of Street Facilities in Various Streets—Other Matters.

Next week is Clean-up Week in Kingston and the local board of health urges every household in the city to get busy that week and clean up the yard of the winter's accumulation of rubbish. The week will be observed all over New York state.

Every April one week is set apart as the time to clean up, and this year the state health department suggested the week commencing April 17. At the regular monthly meeting of the board of health Tuesday evening the suggestion was adopted.

Already many residents have taken advantage of the warm weather to start cleaning up their yards, and it is hoped that every one will take pride in having their property cleaned up. The city will do its part—in fact has started it—by cleaning up the streets.

Wants Furnace Street Sewer. W. J. Auchmoody, who has just erected a house on Furnace street appeared before the board and called attention to the fact that there was no city sewer through that street. Some of the houses on the street are taken care of by private sewers.

The fact that there was no sewer in the street was discovered by Mr. Auchmoody when he tried to connect up with it. He now has no means of disposing of his sewage unless he builds a cesspool, and he has no desire to do so.

He said it had been impossible to get a majority of the property owners on that street to petition the board of public works to construct a sewer as they were satisfied with their private sewers and saw no reason for being put to a further expense by standing their share if the city constructed a sewer.

Mr. Auchmoody said that the street was in a thickly populated section of the city and he believed that a city sewer should run through the street.

After some discussion the board went on record as recommending that the board of public works construct a sewer through Furnace street. The board also will take up with Corporation Counsel Walter N. Gill the question of the board's powers so that it will be in a position to know what action it can legally take when a question of similar character again arises.

Farmer Gets Permit.

The board granted a slaughter house permit to David Farber on Meadow street. Mr. Farber has had a slaughter house on Ann street, for which he had a permit, but has erected a new slaughter house on Meadow street. The board rescinded the Ann street permit and issued a permit for the new location. Other matters taken up will be found elsewhere in this evening's edition.

Red Oleioleth Effective.

Red, a very bright red oleioleth, makes a unusually effective table covering for a dark corner. Usually the place for such material is in the kitchen, but occasionally one sees it in studies and sitting rooms and in the dull light the effect is really quite lovely.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, April 12.—In the wake of the offering of $150,000,000 six months' treasury certificates at 3 1/2 per cent. compared with the former rate of 4 1/2 per cent. the stock market continued its excited rush to higher levels on immense trading today. Sales were at the rate of 1,500,000 shares for the day. More than a score of issues broke into new highs for the year. Gains ranged from one to over five points. The reduction in the rate by the treasury department to 3 1/2 per cent. was accepted as official confirmation of the easier money situation and was believed to foreshadow a reduction in the re-discount rate of the New York Federal Reserve Bank.

One group of stocks after another were taken in hand by the speculative element and whirled to the highest prices of the year. The ticker could not keep up with the immense volume of business and printed the quotations about ten minutes after the actual sale had been consummated.

Among the issues which touched new tops were: United States Rubber, Magna Preferred, Lima Locomotive, American Locomotive, Baldwin Locomotive, Sinclair Oil, Central Leather, Kelly Springfield, Pittsburgh & West Virginia, American Car & Foundry, American Oil and Computing, Tabulating and Recording.

Mrs. Esther Burdick, who was well known in this city where she had many friends, died suddenly at her home at Rosbury Sunday, April 8, the immediate cause of her death being embolism. She had been a resident of Rosbury since 1875.

Her husband, who died several years ago, Edward C. Burdick, was forty years having been the senior partner of the mercantile firm of Burdick & Lauder. For forty-five years she had been a member of the Rosbury Reformed Church and always took a keen interest in the church work. She was president of the Ladies' Social and Missionary Auxiliary, one of the organizers of the Young People's Christian Endeavor, and a member of the Order Eastern Star for many years, holding the office of matron. The Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. found her a most helpful member. The funeral services were held Thursday, April 6, the Rev. H. S. Van Woert conducting the last and richest. The attendance was large, as Mrs. Burdick by her cheerful disposition, her kindly spirit and charity toward all, and her readiness to cooperate in all good work in the community had won the love of all who knew her. The interment was in the Reformed Church cemetery.

Lemuel Freer, a well-to-do and prosperous farmer and fruit grower of Rosbury, died Friday morning, April 7. He was largely a home man. His well kept buildings and well planned vineyards and orchards attested his intelligent labor and thrift. Two years and a half ago his wife died. In their more than forty years of married life they had been separated only five or six nights. Being thus closely together for so many years, he felt her loss in an unusual degree, and passed many lonely days. In fact it was a changed world to him. He was born January 2, 1849, and was thus a little past 73 years of age. He survives him a son, David, living at home, a daughter, Emma, wife of Edwin Oliver of Poughkeepsie, one granddaughter, Grace Oliver, one brother, John L. Freer, of Rosbury, and a sister, Lacie Becker of New York city, besides a large circle of friends. The funeral services were held at his late residence Monday, April 10, at 2 p. m., conducted by his former pastor and intimate friend, the Rev. P. N. Chase, Ph.D., of Kingston, who had been asked by him to conduct the service. The Rev. Mr. Evans, rector of the Episcopal Church at West Park, also offered prayer. The interment was in the Ulster Park Cemetery.

Accord, April 12.—Baltzer Knicker, one of the oldest residents in this section of the county, died on Sunday, April 8, after a brief illness, at the age of 89 years. Coming to this country from his birthplace in Bavaria, Germany, at the age of 21 years, forgetting those things that were behind, he made this country his country and took the oath of allegiance in deed as well as in word and became a citizen of the highest type. After spending some time in New York city and other places, he finally settled in Ulster county more than 50 years ago. Residing at first near Kingston, he moved to the town of Rochester and spent the last 40 years of more of his life there. For several years he was town official and was a watchman on the old D. & H. Canal. He was a member of Accord Lodge, No. 160, I. O. O. F., and lived out in his life their precepts of friendship, love and truth. He was a Christian indeed and until advanced years made it impossible was an attendant at the Reformed Church services. He was the father of eleven children. Four of these children survive. There are also a number of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and other relatives who mourn his loss. His death occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Heiman Knicker of Accord, with whom he made his home. Funeral was held from his late residence on Tuesday afternoon and was conducted by the members of the Odd Fellows' Lodge. The Rev. Mr. Braam officiated. Interment was in the family plot in the rural cemetery.

The funeral of the late Rev. James L. Leeper, D. D., took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the First Reformed Dutch Church, of which he formerly was pastor, and was largely attended. The members of the Kingston Ministerial Association and other clergymen from this vicinity assembled in the chapel of the church and attended the funeral in a body. The service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Inalls of Newark, N. J., and the Rev. Dr. Lusk of Newark, both of whom were for many years close personal friends of Dr. Leeper, assisted by the Rev. Wilbur F. Stowe, pastor of the Reformed Church of the Comforter, and the Rev. Arthur S. Cole, pastor of the Albany Avenue Baptist Church and president of the Kingston Ministerial Association. During the service Mrs. Benjamin W. Johnston sang "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." W. Whiting, Frederickburg, musical director of the church, presided at the organ. There were numerous beautiful floral tributes from Dr. Leeper's friends and from churches of which he had been pastor, including the First Presbyterian Church of St. Joseph, Missouri, whose pulpit he supplied for a time after leaving Kingston, and the Second Presbyterian Church of Rosauoke, Va., whose pulpit he had supplied recently, besides friends in St. Joseph, Rosauoke and many other cities. The bearers were Judge G. D. B. Hasbrouck, Charles Tappan, A. D. Rose, Superintendent of Schools Myron J. Michael, Dr. A. S. Vrooman, William C. Shafter, William M. Davis and Judge James Joukum. Interment was in the family plot in Wilkewick Cemetery.

"Play Ball" Sounds on Big League Diamonds

Giants Meet Dodgers in First Game With Wobbly Pitchers and Frisch Out—Other Teams More or Less Uncertain Quantities.

By Davis Walsh.
By Telegraph to The Freeman.
New York, April 12.—Fifty years today the hardy pioneer of the baseball writing profession sat himself down and in a glow of self-satisfaction, penned the immortal: "Play Ball!"

It was original then. The only trouble is that all too many of his journalistic grandsons think it is original now. In effect they greet the opening of the major league baseball season in the same typographical tone of voice, year after year, and seem to feel that they are letting the world in on an exclusive morsel of news.

As a matter of fact, however, only a few odd millions have been aware for months that major league baseball gets away running in eight big cities today. But they must be told about it just the same, just as any number of public spirited souls will tell you about the flat tire upon which you are attempting to bump your way home.

However, so be it. You know that baseball starts today and that sometimes you have a flat tire, mental, physical and vehicular as the case may be.
The law of averages insists that only four clubs in each league can grace the first division by nightfall, but we will not essay to pick the winners in today's games. It can't be done. All that is known is that some of the logical contenders are not in the best of condition.
The world's champion Giants, for example, open on the Polo Grounds with the Dodgers with an uncertain pitching staff and Frank Frisch on crutches. The St. Louis Cardinals, most impressive hitting club in baseball, are to face the Pirates in
